Tonight we're chatting about Work on Writing. Let's start with Q1... how do you use Work on Writing in your room? #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:03 | Komos72

my class has to choose w on w at least 3 times per week. Each session 20 mins. Own choice of topic. #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:04 | wilson_lisa

My kids use Work on Writing like Read to Someone... a time to practice the skills and strategies we're working on but for writing #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:04 | Komos72

is the w on w just journal writing or do you edit and publish any? #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:05 | amsgoodwin

I plan on introducing blogging as part of our work on writing #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:05 | frugalteacher

#daily5 I try to do wow every day, sometimes on a particular piece of writing, sometimes free choice #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:05 | qldteacher

My kids have to do W on W ever day... just like Read to Self #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:05 | Komos72

My kids have to choose it at least 2x/week. Can make blog comments, write on wiki page, or in book, or some class books to write in #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:05 | judykmck

@frugalteacher love the blogging idea during w o w, only 3 computers in my room :( #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:06 | amsgoodwin

CORRECTION! My kids use Work on Writing like Read to Self... a time to practice the skills/strategies were working on for writing #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:06 | Komos72

My kids write in their journals everyday but every 6 weeks we do a big writing project using the writing process. #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:06 | frugalteacher

We also have a separate writing time where we develop topics and skills #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:06 | judykmck

My kids do WoW at the same time as Word Work, in a separate hour from the reading bits of #Daily5 Not strictly by the book, I know

06-Aug-11 00:06 | mr_mitch_hughes

My W on W is free choice writing and kids can use it to finish up workshop writing pieces.#daily5.

06-Aug-11 00:06 | valruckes

RT @frugalteacher: My kids write in their journals everyday but every 6 weeks we do a big writing project using the writing process. #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:08 | qldteacher

@frugalteacher My kids LOVED blogging for W o W last year!! #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:08 | Komos72

@amsgoodwin I think a lot of us do have sep session as well - more directed #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:08 | judykmck

@judykmck @amsgoodwin @frugalteacher yes but also want to use them for listening to reading and word work makes it difficult #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:08 | amsgoodwin

I have 4 classroom computers and planning to have kids blog during W on W this year #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:08 | valruckles

@soingirl YAY!!! :) :) #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:08 | Komos72

@judykmck What about having a parent helper checking comments? #daily5 Hi! :)

06-Aug-11 00:08 | jdowlo1

@judykmck @amsgoodwin @frugalteacher I believe Kidblogs allows students to save comments so you can check them later. Am I correct? #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:08 | frugalteacher

We have 6 computers in the room and I just picked up 3 iP@ds and 2 touches we can use that are for a project I am a part of #daily5

@soingirl Hey Melody, busy day today! #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:09 | judykmck

06-Aug-11 00:09 | Komos72

06-Aug-11 00:09 | qldteacher

WOW!! MT @soingirl: We have 6 comps in room and I just picked up 3 iP@ds and 2 touches we use that are for a project I am a part of #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:10 | Komos72

We do grammar and sentence editing as part of our daily morning work. This is very helpful when they write on their own. #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:10 | frugalteacher

@andrellfloyd Free choice of topic; we brainstorm ideas during Writing mini lessons. #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:10 | Komos72

Most of the time my Ss could blog about topics of their choice,if I wanted them all writing about same thing we did it another time #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:11 | soingirl

Here's a post by @kellyjordan82 about integrating blogging into literacy (and WoW) <http://bit.ly/j7uHk2> #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:11 | jmsalsich

We have trolleys of laptops. I could get a computer for each kid if I wanted. Usually pull out about 8 #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:11 | mr_mitch_hughes

@Komos72 @soingirl @ds That's nice. I would like to get some e-readers for read to self and listening to reading #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:11 | frugalteacher

@Komos72 Is there a blogging platform that you prefer? I'm looking into using kidblog with my 3rd graders #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:12 | andrellfloyd

I wimp out on writing currently, but I'm planning to study Day by Day (Ayres & Shubitz) to improve this year. #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:12 | MsHoughton

#daily5 Working with k/1 find they need guidance with topic - I focus on text type or provide prompts for free choice

06-Aug-11 00:12 | jdowlo1

@judykmck @amsgoodwin @frugalteacher I do get 5 ip@ds one day a week which will help with word work #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:12 | amsgoodwin

Where are you guys "picking up" Ipads and Itouches for your rooms? #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:12 | frugalteacher

RT@soingirl: Most of time my Ss blog about topics of their choice,if I wanted them writing about same thing we did it another time #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:12 | Komos72

@andrellfloyd @Komos72 I use Edublogs now, but we started out on Kidblog #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:12 | soingirl

@jdowlo1 Hi Jen - parent helper is a good idea! #daily5 Don't have any at the moment, will investigate

06-Aug-11 00:12 | judykmck

@hilary35t #daily5 kidblog works well - only problem is access to enough computer!

06-Aug-11 00:13 | jdowlo1

Is there a big difference with edublog & kidblog? #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:13 | hilary35t

I'm using Kidblogs as well #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:13 | valruckles

@mr_mitch_hughes @soingirl @andrellfloyd Nope, no email needed for Kidblogs! #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:14 | Komos72

I like parent helpers too, but I want the kids to spell things how they sound or use patterns etc to help instead of asking for word #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:14 | soingirl

@mr_mitch_hughes Would u use global 2 so acc can be linked to you? #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:14 | wilson_lisa

@wilson_lisa We will have a class blog that will have a "question of the week" that they must comment on either at home or in school #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:14 | frugalteacher

@frugalteacher School bought 4 touches for us to trial #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:14 | judykmck

@cybraryman1 Thanks for the links. You have so much information on your site. :) #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:15 | andrellfloyd

@soingirl I've made a clear split between draft and edit, and chn don't 'check spelling' during draft. Much more imaginative lang! #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:16 | mr_mitch_hughes

@soingirl Slightly off topic, but on Edublogs, could I make private blog to use as parent communication tool? Newsletters, pics etc? #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:16 | Komos72

@judykmck @soingirl That's exactly what I do too, Judy...sometimes they try to suck parents or visitors into spelling for them lol #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:16 | soingirl

@soingirl I like kids using spelling patterns & sounding out too...also use a kid dictionary that they can refer to & put new words #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:16 | hilary35t

@qldteacher @wilson_lisa Thanks for the mention. #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:16 | wilson_lisa

Agree RT @mr_mitch_hughes:I've made a clear split between draft and edit,dont check spelling during draft.Much more imaginative lang! #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:17 | soingirl

@frugalteacher @Komos72 @wilson_lisa totally agree. My parents have no interest (or maybe skills). Only 1 or 2 have looked at blog #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:18 | wilson_lisa

I'm thinking of having small (quarter sheet) staples books & comic strips always available. My summer school kids loved this #Daily5

06-Aug-11 00:18 | KarynTeaches

@hilary35t I do the same. Also 'have a go' pad #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:18 | qldteacher

I've been noticing how quick and independent many of my kids are getting at writing comments #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:18 | judykmck

@Komos72 @soingirl Do ou mean a personal blog, or one only certain people can read? #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:18 | soingirl

Must remember to take photos of my classroom to share next week! #Daily5 We have a great word wall going on!

06-Aug-11 00:18 | mr_mitch_hughes

Looks like we may be ready for another question! :) Q2: What do your kids write in/on? Journals, notebooks, computer? #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:18 | Komos72

I haven't done a ton on the editing process w/ my kids. Anyone have a good book recommendation? #Daily5

06-Aug-11 00:19 | KarynTeaches

@soingirl One that I can password protect so only parents can see it #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:19 | Komos72

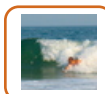

@acolley you might want to check out this evening's #daily5 chat

06-Aug-11 00:19 | mlombardo99

My kids have monthly paper journals to write in... again, mostly free choice of topic! #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:19 | Komos72

Oops, HERE is the link to @kellyjordan82 's post about integrating blogs into WoW: <http://bit.ly/nmTg0j> #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:19 | jmsalsich

After reading what some others do, we have some class w o w books that children can choose to write in #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:19 | judykmck

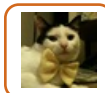

I saw an idea of class journals with a theme (like family, holidays,etc) so I made some with composition notebooks #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:20 | hilary35t

@Komos72 @soingirl Don't think so, but can look into it #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:20 | soingirl

We have a literacy notebook for pre-writing thru evaluation, but published work on clean lined paper, voice recording or typed #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:20 | mr_mitch_hughes

kids have free choice for writing implement. I don't let them use story bird although. #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:20 | wilson_lisa

During our small group time, students work in pairs to proofread each others work and use red pens to revise & edit their own work. #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:20 | frugalteacher

@wilson_lisa I have little 'spacemen' on icy pole sticks to help them remember to leave a space #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:20 | qldteacher

@Komos72 you also mentioned your shared journals, where are those stored? #Daily5

06-Aug-11 00:20 | KarynTeaches

#daily5 my students have a choice of where to write:paper, thinkquest.org page, iPad/iPod, Storybird (this not going well at the moment)

06-Aug-11 00:20 | brettlockyer

#daily5 mine write on computer, writing notebook, and draft book. When posting or commenting have to draft it in Word first. #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:20 | KathrynTrask

We also have class notebooks (journals) on diff topics. Everyone writes in same journal, similar to a blog #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:21 | Komos72

We have writer's notebooks, also write on computers, would like to have some other choices available as well #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:21 | soingirl

RT @jdowlo1: Another idea is to write about a picture (have a pile already cut from magazines) #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:21 | Komos72

Love this idea! RT @Komos72: We also have class notebooks (journals) on diff topics. Everyone writes in same journal #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:22 | soingirl

@frugalteacher @wilson_lisa Don;t like the way that the pictures have to be from a set. Get many stories of: This is a cat etc #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:22 | wilson_lisa

My kids use spiral notebooks for journals and keep them at their desks so they can work on them when they have completed other work #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:22 | frugalteacher

#daily5 I have a class backpack with items and writing book on current study topic. Students take turns to take home #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:22 | qldteacher

My kids use green pens to ck caps (go) & red pens to ck punctuation (stop)&purple to add wow words #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:22 | hilary35t

@andrellfloyd Are working towards using <http://audioboo.fm/> with kids for voice recordings. Free to make and embeds nicely in blogs #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:23 | mr_mitch_hughes

My stds will have a writer's notebook. Do others have the stds keep writing notebooks in their book bins? #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:23 | jmsalsich

@wilson_lisa @frugalteacher Storyjumper is a lot of fun too and the kids make their own pictures #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:23 | soingirl

@wilson_lisa @frugalteacher ahhh..good point. Haven't thought of that aspect. What grade do you teach? #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:23 | frugalteacher

I let my kids write in their writing folders from writing time or I have "fun" paper available for wow. #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:23 | rkpatterson

We use writing packets/journals where number of lines gradually increase #daily5

06-Aug-11 00:23 | wilson_lisa

06-Aug-11 00:23 | brettelockyer

@soingirl @wilson_lisa @frugalteacher we need to make a list of online writing tools etc Storybird, storyjumper as start #daily5
